In order that we can schedule events and activities that reflect as much as possible our members own preferences could you please give a brief description in your own words of the sort of activities you would ideally like to see within the group...

Membership of BEXLEY POETS costs just £10 per year and entitles members to free entry to our monthly meetings (entry fee £2 per session to non-members) which are held on the first Monday of every month (subject to room availability) at The Civic Centre, Broadway, Bexleyheath commencing at 7.30PM. In addition, there is a members newsletter and internet forum (password required), discount offers on poetry books, publication opportunities (including our own Bexley Poets Anthology (published yearly) and a host of other member services.

After completing this form please return it with your payment (cheques (£10 per member, per annum) made payable to Paul Seymour) to the address shown below. You should then receive an official welcome pack and your membership card within 10 days of receipt of your application (if you attend a monthly meeting before your card has arrived you can claim your entry fee back).

THANKS FOR JOINING AND WELCOME TO BEXLEY POETS!
